

2009 Honorary Life Member

Marcia B. Harris

Marcia retired February, 2009 from The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, where she had been director of University Career Services since 1982. She is co- author of The Parent's Crash Course in Career Planning: Helping Your College Student Succeed (recently revised) as well as several journal articles. Marcia has been a consultant for many organizations, including IBM, Philip Morris USA, and the CIA and has conducted external reviews for twelve universities. She has been cited in publications such as Time, The Wall Street Journal, The New York Times, USA Today, and The Boston Globe and has appeared on ABC's World Wide News. Marcia has held various SACE positions, including president and has served on the Board of NACE. She is the recipient of several prestigious awards, including SACE's Ajax-Griffin Distinguished Service Award, the NACE/Chevron Outstanding Achievement Award for Innovation (twice) and the NACE Excellence in Technology Award. In 2004, Marcia was elected to the NACE Academy of Fellows.

Marcia holds a bachelor's degree from Vassar College and a master's degree from North Carolina State University. She is married and has two children and two grandchildren.

Marcia is continuing to consult with organizations about college career issues. She is a guardian ad litem for two foster children. In her free time, she enjoys yoga, theater, and reading.

Please join the SoACE Board of Directors in recognizing the 2009 Honorary Life Membership Award recipient, Marcia B. Harris.