

Southern Association of Colleges and Employers

New Professional Award Recipient

2009

Wayne Hampton graduated from Auburn University in Alabama with a degree in Mass Communications. He worked for a non-profit media company in Burbank, California for three years upon graduation. Wayne started his career with Disney over 18 years ago and has experience working in Operations (in all four Florida theme parks and three of the Florida resort hotels) as well as in recruiting (both domestically and internationally). His TACE and SoACE involvement includes being a TACE Board Member (2 years), TACE Conference Speaker, SoACE Committee

Volunteer (Local Arrangements Committee for 2009 Conference, Scholarship Committee), and SoACE Conference Speaker.